PASSENGER AGENTS AND WIVES HERE

HAVE GOOD TIME IN DAYTONA MUCH IMPRESSED WITH CITY

ALL SLEAK HIGHLY OF ENTER-TAINMENT OFFERED BY BOARD OF TRADE AND HOTEL MEN
 SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Out for a good time and with all thoughts of business cares and worrones cast to the winds 200 American passenger agents and their wives arrived in Daytona by special train at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon and spent the afternoon taking in the sights and being entertained as guests of the Daytona board of trade and hotel men's association.

From the many expressions of delight heard from the visitors during the afternoon and before taking the special train again at 8 o'clock Sunday evening the visit here was a most enjoyable one and the visitors were highly pleased with the entertainment given them while in Dayтона.

Many of these people have never before been in Florida and are in a susceptible mood to form a good opinion of this great state. Also these passenger men, who are from the four corners of the United States, are in a splendid position to boost or keep up a certain community with people seeking desirable places in which to spend the winter months.

The entertainment consisted of meeting the delegates at the depot with automobiles when the special train arrived and taking all to the automobile clubhouse for a buffet luncheon. After the luncheon the visitors were taken for an automobile trip through Daytona Beach and Seaside and to the Clarence hotel for light refreshments. Later they were driven about the city of Daytona for a couple of hours and then distributed at the various hotels, where they were entertained for supper.

PLDGE SUPPORT TO REPUBLIC

CITY OF HANKOW NOW IN STATE OF BOMBARDMENT WITH FIERCE BATTLE CONTIN-UING THROUGH TODAY.

TIEN TSIN, China, Jan. 2.—The imperialist troops stationed at Lanchow mutinied today and the soldiers declared their allegiance to the new republican government.

The bombardment of the city of Hankow and the firing, which accompanied the bombardment, continued all through today.

To March on Capital—PIKING, Jan. 2.—The combined forces of the republicans and the most loyal troops at Lanchow have decided to march on the capital. The loyal troops are preparing to march on the capital.

Hankins Says:

 enced Prescriptionists who have studied

WOMEN AS DEPUTY SHERIFFS

TO SERVE IN NEW YORK CITY; ANNOUNCEMENT MADE TODAY

PROMINENT WOMEN NAMED BY SHERIFF AND EACH MUST QUALIFY AND PUT UP BOND
 FOR $10,000.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Sheriff Har-burger today announced he would appoint several women as deputy sheriffs. Among those he will name to hold the political offices are Mrs.
 Nordica, Mrs. Bellona and Mrs.
 John Crosby, all prominent in the affairs of the Women's Democratic League.

Each woman named as a deputy sheriff must qualify and put up a bond of $10,000 to hold the office.

POOR SCHOOL PROGRESS

BOY COMMITS SUICIDE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Barnett Waller, aged 17, killed himself with a revolver at his home on Delaney street today. He had been suffering with illness and the fear that he would drop behind his classes in college is presumed to have been the cause for the act.

GIRLS BURN TO DEATH

IN FIRE IN HOTEL TODAY.

COLLINSVILLE, Ill., Jan. 2.—The new Mechanics hotel was destroyed here this morning. Two girls were burned to death and four others were seriously injured.

DISASTROUS BROOKLYN FIRE:

MANY FAMILIES HOMELESS

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—A large planing mill and lumber yard and 29 two-story dwelling houses were destroyed by fire in the Bedford Park district, Brooklyn, today.

Scores of families were driven from their homes into the streets.
 The total loss will amount to $350,000.

BICYCLE RUN OVER AND

SMASHED BY AUTOMOBILE.

Part Hancock at Kingston, had his bicycle wrecked by an automobile this morning about 9 o'clock, in front of the Oaks hotel on Ridgewood avenue, but received no injury himself.

Mr. Hancock was coming south on Ridgewood avenue and when passing a horse and vehicle in front of the Oaks, the horse shied and struck his shoulder, making him lose his balance, so that he fell from his wheel. The automobile was containing north and Mr. Hancock had barely time to jump to one side to avoid it, leaving his wheel on the roadway, where it was run over by the car. Mr. Hancock wanted damage for the bicycle, but the owner of the car refused to give him his name. Mr. Hancock, however, secured the number of the car and will make a claim for the damage.

BUCK'S

ANOTHER ROBBERY IS ADDED

OFFICE OF DENTIST ENTERED THIEVES LOOKING FOR GOLD

BURGLAR SMASHES TRANSOM FRAME, GLASS AND ALL AND FINDS LITTLE TO PAY FOR HIS EFFORTS.

The latest in the series of robberies which have been pulled off in Daytona during the past week was the breaking into the dental office of Dr. J. H. Pierson Sunday evening. The fact that Dr. Pierson had everything of value locked in the safe prevented the burglar from getting much for his trouble.

Entrance to the office was gained through the transom over the door and either as the result of an accident or because the robber made a blundering job of the attempt the transom was badly smashed, glass, frame and all. The smashing of the glass was plainly heard by pedestrians on the walk in front of the Conrad building about 8:30 o'clock Sunday evening, but no particular significance was attached to the noise because it was thought some person had carelessly broken a window.

After the smashing of the transom the entrance to the office was an easy matter for the burglar, but little was removed from the room, because nothing of any great value was left outside the safe. It is evident no effort was made to blow the safe. It is probable the robbery of the dental office was made for the purpose of securing the strips of gold used in making fillings and crowns.

Nothing in the way of a clue was left by the burglar and the job is supposed to have been done by the same person or persons who did the job in the residence last week.
 The city officers have been keeping a close watch for suspicious characters and one was picked up on suspicion by Night Watchman Cowan last night, but was released this morning after giving a satisfactory explanation.

EARTHQUAKE SHAKES CITY OF CHICAGO

MANY BUILDINGS ARE ROCKED THINGS FALL FROM SHELVES

LARGE TERRITORY FEELS THE SHOCK, WHICH IS MORE PRO-NOUNCED ALONG THE FRONT OF LAKE MICHIGAN.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—An earthquake shook the city of Chicago and surrounding territory this morning and from 10 to 20 buildings were rocked dishes were jarred and fell from the shelves, pictures fell from the walls and other minor damages were the result.

People fled into the streets in a panic. The shock was the most pronounced along the lake front, but strongly felt all over the city.

STEAMER PASSENGER MISSING;

PROBABLY JUMPED OVERBOARD

NEWSPAPER MAN GONE FROM SECOND CABIN WHEN CU-NARD LINER SAXONIA DOCKS AT NEW YORK TODAY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—When the Cunard liner Saxonia arrived here today W. B. Hunt, a second cabin passenger was missing and it was believed he jumped overboard on the trip. Hunt is a newspaper man and the son of Mrs. Saline Ward Hunt Armstrong of Downsy. No trace of him has been found since the docking of the boat.

JUDGE AND MRS. SEARS HELD

NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION.

Judge and Mrs. Nathaniel C.
 Sears of Chicago, held a reception from 3 to 5 o'clock New Year's day at their handsome home on the river front at Daytona Beach. Notwithstanding the very inclement state of the weather the reception was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by many friends and acquaintances of Judge and Mrs. Sears, who were assisted in receiving by the judge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G.
 Sears and Mrs. Sears' sisters, Mrs.
 Warner, of Moline, Ill., and Miss Davidson, of Sackville, Col. Capt. and Mrs. C. A. Young and Dr. and Mrs.
 Henry Mitchell also assisted in the general entertainment of the guests and Mesdames H. A. Alsworth, C.
 H. Abbott, Charles Clark and Wm.
 Boxley presided in the dining room where delicious and attractive refreshments were served. The Tucker orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion, which will be remembered as one of the most pleasant social affairs of the season.

 dictionaries in the window at the office of the Gazette-News? They are

$600 REWARD FOR RETURN OF PROPERTY

BURGLAR STANDS CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD MONEY FOR WORK

STRONG EVIDENCE "JOBS" WERE HANDLED BY PROFESSIONAL AND SMALL CHANCE FOR ANY RETURNS.

If the robber or robbers who pulled off the "jobs" in Daytona during the past week take advantage of the offers made by the losers of personal property and no questions asked, they have a standing offer of $600 in cash for the work done during the past week. That isn't bad for three nights' work.

J. B. Moore, E. B. Putnam and N. C. Sears each offers a reward of $200 for the return of property taken from his home in the recent "jobs," advertisements to this effect being printed in the Daily News, and all the robbers have to do is turn over the goods and receive the money.

From all indications, however, the "jobs" have been done by a professional thief, who is well experienced in getting rid of stolen goods and there is little chance any of this valuable property is still in this vicinity. Evidence that the work was done by a professional was shown at the Putnam home in the manner and ease with which the porch was "scaled," and at the Sears home the robber was shown to be an expert in examining jewelry by the fact that each piece of jewelry taken away was solid gold, while several pieces of gold-filled jewelry were examined and left behind. This shows an expert knowledge of the manner of disposing of stolen gold, which is usually melted before any effort is made to dispose of it.

DAILY STOCK MARKET REPORT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Stocks opened strong today with Interborough preferred up a point and a half.
 Steel five-eighths higher and all other stocks showing good gains.
 Cotton was steady and at two to six higher, except that January was lower and quoted at $8.77. May was quoted at $9.12.

WHEAT MARKET IS FIRM

PROVISIONS SHADE UP.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The wheat market opened firm at a half to five-eighths higher with May quoted at $3.99 1-8. Provisions were a shade higher with May pork at $16.05, lard $9.40 and ribs $8.62. Hogs were steady and cattle strong.

WOMAN BURNS TO DEATH

DAUGHTER WILL ALSO DIE.

LOWELL, Ind., Jan. 2.—Mrs.
 Daniel Stratton was burned to death and her daughter Nellie was fatally burned when their clothing became ignited while kindling a fire with kerosene.

ROOSEVELT WILL ACCEPT NOMINATION

FRIENDS OF TAFT ARE TOLD COLONEL WILL SEEK OFFICE

EVIDENCE THAT PRESIDENT IS
 THAT CABINET MEETING WAS POSTPONED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—It became known at the White House today that Theodore Roosevelt is a candidate for the republican nomination for the presidency.
 Friends of President Taft have been told positively the colonel will accept the nomination if it is offered to him and will seek it if it is not offered.

The first indication that there was something wrong at the White House came today when the president failed to appear at the executive offices and worked several hours with a stenographer, postponing the cabinet meeting. Then it was learned that Secretary Hilse went to New York last night for a conference with Taft's friends.
 It is regarded as certain that a contest for the nomination between Taft and Roosevelt is now inevitable.

LAFOLETTE IN MICHIGAN

WORKS FOR PROGRESSIVES.

SAGINAW, MICH., Jan. 2.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, left today for Grand Rapids on the second day of his speaking tour in Michigan in the interests of the progressive republicans. Senator La-Follette will reach Chicago tonight and tomorrow will begin a two days tour of Illinois.

OHIO DEMOCRATS OPPOSE

TO NOMINATION OF HARMON

"PROGRESSIVE" DEMOCRATS EX-PECTED TO PASS ANTI-HAR-MON RESOLUTIONS AT CON-VENTION IN COLUMBUS.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—Insurgence is rampant in the state of Ohio. Delegates from all part of the state arrived here today to participate in the convention of the "progressive" democrats, who oppose the nomination of Governor Harmon for president.
 Every indication is that anti-Harmon resolutions will be adopted, but it has not yet developed who, if any candidate will receive the endorsement of the Ohio "progressive" democrats.

TWO FARMERS KILLED

IN FIGHT IN THE NIGHT.

QUINCY, Ill., Jan. 2.—John Glin-gery and Henry Hatfield, both farmers, were killed during a fight last night on a farm near Pittsfield. It is said both had been drinking. During the fight a stove was overturned and both bodies were burned to a crisp.

BOSTON METHODIST CHURCH

BADLY DAMAGED BY FLAMES.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—The Daniel Dorchester Methodist church with the parsonage adjoining on Park street, Roxbury, was damaged by fire to the extent of $25,000 early this morning.
 Rev. Paul Smith, the pastor, and the members of his family had narrow escapes from being killed or badly burned.

ALL HOTELS NOW OPENED FOR SEASON

ADDITION TO THE RIDGEWOOD ADDS TO CAPACITY OF HOUSE

LARGER HOTELS ARE NOW IN CONDITION TO ACCOMMODATE THE FULL CAPACITY NUMBER OF GUESTS.

With the opening of the Ridgewood, Despland, Palmeto, Prince George and Bennett hotels at noon yesterday the winter tourist season may be considered in full swing in Daytona and the city is in better shape to take care of the winter guests this year than it has ever been before.

Most of the smaller hotels have been open and entertaining guests for several weeks and some of the regular season guests of the larger hotels have been taken care of by the hostesses in advance of the regular opening, but the larger houses have not been in condition to accommodate the capacity number of guests until this time.

The opening of the Clarence hotel the last day of this week will complete the list of season houses in this vicinity and from that time to the first of April all hotels will be ready to accommodate the capacity number of guests.

Changes, alterations and improvements have been made in the Des-pland, Palmeto and Prince George hotels this season to put the houses in the best possible condition to handle the winter business, and the hotels were all in first class condition when formally opened yesterday.

At the Ridgewood more extensive changes have been made than in any of the other hotels in this vicinity and regular season guests at this popular house will soon recognize the big house when they arrive from the north.

The big, coquina addition has been completed, elegantly furnished, connected with the other hotel part and is now ready for the reception of guests. The addition is entirely of fireproof construction and practically all the rooms in this part of the Ridgewood have already been engaged.

To better accommodate the guests of the new part the hotel office has been moved to the northwest corner of the old part and the lobby entrance from the north wing now opens directly into the main office. The space formerly occupied by the office will be used for a new maid and hairdressing and manicure parlor.
 The doors which formerly formed the main hotel entrance have been closed and replaced with windows, the former parlor entrance from the north end of the porch now being the main hotel entrance.

In the new wing the first three floors are arranged in suites, every suite being equipped with bath and each room having a private entrance and cold running water. The top floor has been arranged in an artistic way for a dance hall, where dance-ing parties will be held once or twice each week, and this room will also be used for a large ball and parties and other entertainments during the season.

All of the large force of help needed to handle the big hotel this winter has arrived and the final touches of getting the house in condition to receive guests were completed in plenty of time for the opening yesterday. No additions have been made to the dining room and kitchen to accommodate the extra guests of the addition, but additional tables have been placed in the dining room, which is plenty large enough to accommodate the additional number of guests.

FOOTBALL GAME FAILS TO MATERIALIZE MONDAY.

The popularity of football in Daytona seems to have been short lived. The game that was scheduled for New Year's day failed to come off at the time proposed. Sure it rained, but who ever heard of a football game being postponed on account of rain?

Maybe the wrong team won the first game, or maybe the Rifles did start out to the park but got their ammunition wet and turned back. Perhaps part of their new material was not quite seasoned. At any rate the Daytona team made the trip and had to start the game, but the Rifles were missing. He was the first player of either side to reach the field and the last to leave. That was Bradshaw, and he was the manager and chief booster of the vanquished aggregation.

It is doubtful now if another game will be attempted this winter and the Daytona team will probably be left in undisputed claim of the city championship.

PENNSYLVANIA MAN WILL TRY STOCK RAISING HERE.

Grant Logue of Valley, Pa., arrived in Deland this week with his wife, four sons and four daughters. Others from his town will follow shortly. Mr. Logue valued Deland last winter and while here contracted for and later bought 180 acres of land about two and a half miles north of Deland on the Daytona road. Mr. Logue will erect a home on this land, will plant a garden, some truck and start a stock farm. He has had experience in the growing of alfalfa, and will try this on a small scale to begin with. Mr. Logue comes here to make his home; he does not expect to make his fortune at once; he has enough, he says, to live on for a year or so, and intends to see what he can do in the stock business.—Deland News.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Colleen Bawn

Halem's Master Production in Three Reels, Staged in "Dear Old Ireland"

"The Colleen Bawn," as will readily be remembered by the majority of our people, is the title of an Irish drama written by that celebrated playwright, Dion Boucicault, and presented for the first time in America, March 27, 1860, at Laura Keane's Theatre, New York, with the author in one of the prominent roles. Since that time it has been played thousands of times in almost every city in this country, and still remains an example of the highest type of Irish play. Written around well-known scenes in County Kerry, Ireland, and so truly portraying the Irish character and costumes of the period 1790, that the scenes and incidents of "The Colleen Bawn" have been fairly taken out of the realm of fiction by the Irish people and stamped with authenticity to the extent that the tourists are today shown the "Colleen Bawn Rock," Danny Mann's cottage, the ruins of the home of the Colleen in Muckross Head, and other points immortalized by the dramatist.

It was following the successful issue of the first excursion of the Kalem Stock Company to Ireland that the project of producing in pictures taken in Ireland a number of Irish plays was suggested. Though the plan entailed great expense for the transportation of an adequate company and suitable equipment, the Kalem Company was willing to forgo the profit a like expenditure at some would bring for the distinction that a successful issue of the venture would earn. With this high and commendable incentive as the actuating motive, the work was undertaken upon a lavish scale. The company of players was selected with special reference to the suitability of each individual for the work to be done. It is doubtful if a more competent and experienced group of players of its numbers has ever before been assembled for a similar undertaking.

The difficulty of obtaining in Ireland suitable properties and scenery for pictures compelled the transportation of a great quantity of property material and costumes, so that the expense of the campaign counted up into the thousands of dollars before the players were fairly on their way. Upon arrival in Ireland the master of maintenance of the company, the securing of concessions and the many unforeseen and unexpected emergencies called for more thousands, all of which will crowd closely upon a sum of six figures, if it does not actually exceed that amount. So much for the expense.

Of the hardships endured by the players themselves, and the difficulties overcome, the complete story will probably never be told. It is the lot of the picture player to overcome obstacles, so that the thought is given to that feature of the work, heart-rending though much of it be. One or two experiences of the Kalem have been chronicled in the Moving Picture World, which fairly illustrate what the company has met with in the way of adventure in connection with their present task. Out of this lavish outpouring of capital and the devotion to duty of the players comes, among others, the pictured story of "The Colleen Bawn," as a most fitting climax to a high endeavor, not alone typical of the company immediately concerned, but of the American picture making as an enterprise, alert, resourceful and progressive.

Take my word for it, I have a treat in store for you.

AND LET ME GIVE YOU A TIP.

Come this afternoon if you can, and if you can't, come early tonight, or you'll certainly have to wait in line.

Indigestion Gone Digestit Did It

MONTGOMERY, Ala. T. M. Hays writes: "I have tried many prescriptions and a lot of patent medicines and received more benefit from a package of your Digestit than all the other medicines. I was troubled with heart burn, sour stomach and a burning in my chest and everything I ate hurt me, but now I can eat anything I want, and that heart burn and sour stomach have disappeared. I have recommended your medicine to many sufferers and cannot say too much for your wonderful remedy. I endorse every word you say about it. I feel good today and owe it to your excellent medicine."

As an "After Dinner" tablet to relieve or prevent that full uncomfortable feeling after eating a hearty meal, there is no better remedy that Digestit—it digests the food and prevents fermentation. 50c at CHURCH, DRUGGIST.
